

Exceptional Kids

March 2011

We live in a world that bombards us with messages from every direction, emphasizing short cuts, and leading us to believe that 'faster is better'. What has happened to the world that danced to the tune "Slow down, you movin too fast ..."? To foster the intellectual growth and social development of a child takes time. It is a parental responsibility that should not be rushed. Rather, it should be enjoyed, nurtured and cherished. Sometimes, however, it involves taking two steps back before going four steps forward with positive and appropriate momentum.

An 'Exceptional' Quote

"Balance in life means the presence of self-control and discipline, as well as the ability not to let outside events influence their emotions, actions, and reactions."

Dorothy Sisk

'Exceptional' Finds

SENG <http://sengifted.org>

Online Webinars with "knowledgeable experts discussing issues related to the social and emotional needs of the gifted."

Exceptional.Kids@ameritech.net

Tara Lenga (847) 902-0472

www.Exceptional-Kids.com